VIII - COL-1521. MAYFAIR (1814), off Landstreet Road, Timonium.

A much altered large stone house; 5 bays wide main block, with wings off each end. gable roofs, with cross gable added later to front facade. Situated on ridge west of I-83, in the middle of about 4 acres, & now surrounded by Mays Chapel Village Subdivision. Built on lot 1 of Thomas Cockeys estate of 640 acres by his great-niece Penelope Depp (Covings) Price & her husband Frederick Price. A bill of materials (March 4, 1812) & lawsuit papers of October 14, 1813 (W.G.A. 111/443) show Robert Bigham as contractor. Mrs. Price remarried & the 1850 Sidney map shows her as Mrs. Goodwin. She died at age 90 in 1875, & the 1877 Hopkins atlas shows house as belonging to "Mrs. Goodwin's heirs." The property passed to her daughter Eliza Goodwin, then to her brother Charles L. R. Goodwin, & to son of her sister Francis Edward J. Cherbonnier, who in 1904 sold the place out of the family to Fairfax S. Landstreet. The house has an old fireplace in the basement & hand hewn beams. Water-filled wells have been dried up until recent times & lime was at one time burned on the property.

Owner (as of 9/79): Charles C. Vogel III.
